

Press Release – Julie Finlay joins Mundays

We are delighted to announce that Julie Finlay, formerly a Solicitor at Foreman Laws Solicitors, has joined the firm as a Solicitor in the Private Wealth Department.

After gaining a Masters Degree in Commercial Law from Cambridge, Julie became a solicitor in 2005 at Pitmans Solicitors where she trained. She has practised in Corporate Finance, as well as Tax, Wills, Trusts and Probate, throughout her career.

Graham Coy, Head of Mundays Private Wealth Department said: “We are delighted to have Julie to add to the strength of our private wealth team here at Mundays. She brings a wealth of experience in private client matters which supports our offering to our clients in this field”

Julie Finlay commented: “I am very excited to be joining the well established and respected team at Mundays and look forward to contributing to their track record of solid technical expertise and passion for client care.”

Before St Edmund’s College, Cambridge, Julie studied Law at UWE Bristol. Julie has a good knowledge of Italian and Latin and is currently studying for a B.A. (Hons) degree in Classics, Italian and Creative Writing with the Open University.
